USTA PRO CIRCUIT MEN'S TENNIS RETURNS TO CHAMPAIGN, CONCLUDES AUSTRALIAN OPEN WILD CARD CHALLENGE

The JSM Challenger of Champaign-Urbana returns to Champaign for the 22nd year as one of the longest-running men's events on the USTA Pro Circuit. It is the final USTA Pro Circuit Challenger of the year.

Champaign is the last of three consecutive men's hard-court tournaments that make up the Australian Open Wild Card Challenge presented by the USTA, which will award a men's and women's wild card into the 2018 Australian Open. The USTA and Tennis Australia have a reciprocal agreement in which wild cards into the 2017 US Open and 2018 Australian Open are exchanged. The other tournaments in the men's portion of the wild card challenge were $75,000 Challengers in Charlottesville, Va., held the week of Oct. 30, and Knoxville, Tenn., held the week of Nov. 6.

In addition to the three men's tournaments, the Australian Open Wild Card Challenge also included three $80,000 USTA Pro Circuit women's hard-court tournaments, which took place in Macon, Ga., the week of Oct. 23, in Tyler, Texas, the week of Oct. 30, and in Waco, Texas, the week of Nov. 6.

The American woman who earns the most WTA ranking points at two of the three USTA Pro Circuit hard-court events will receive a wild card to compete in the main draw of the 2018 Australian Open, which will be held Monday, Jan. 15, through Sunday, Jan. 28. Only players who did not receive direct entry into the Australian Open are eligible for the wild cards.
